

Table of contents: Effective Interviewing in ESG Audits

Module 1: Introduction to Effective Interviewing in Social Compliance Audits

- 1.1 Overview of the course objectives and structure
- 1.2 Interview in social compliance audits
- 1.3 Importance of effective interviewing in social compliance audits
- 1.4 Introduction to the PEACE model
- 1.5 Introduction to Dr. Shawn Christopher Shea's techniques
- 1.6 Principles of Auditing
- 1.7 Communications Dos and Don'ts in Interviews
- 1.8 Summary and conclusion
- 1.9 Practical Exercises

Module 2: Preparation and Planning

- 2.1 Preparing and Planning for the Audit
  - 2.1.1 Gathering Relevant Information
  - 2.1.2 Understanding the audit scope
  - 2.1.3 Identifying Potential Interviewees
  - 2.1.4 Working with an Interpreter
- 2.2 Preparing and Planning for Each Interview
  - 2.2.1 Define Interview Objectives
  - 2.2.2 Prioritize Topics
- 2.3 Ethical Considerations in Preparation Step
- 2.4 Choosing the location for the interview
- 2.5 Taking notes in audit interviews
- 2.6 Other Practical Arrangements
- 2.7 Preparing and Planning for group interviews
- 2.8 Summary and Conclusion

2.9 Practical Exercises

Module 3: Engaging and Establishing Rapport

3.1 Importance of Building Rapport

3.2 Active Listening and Empathy

3.2.1 Importance of Active Listening and Empathy

3.2.2 OARS technique

3.3 Creating a Supportive Environment

3.3.1 Strategies for creating a supportive environment

3.3.2 Using nonverbal communication

3.3.3 Two selected techniques

3.4 Cultural Sensitivity in Rapport Building

3.4.1 Recognizing Cultural Differences

3.4.2 Techniques for adapting in a new culture

3.5 Establishing Trust and Confidentiality

3.5.1 Explaining the interview process

3.5.2 Addressing Confidentiality Concerns

3.5.3 Building Trust – combining with previous sessions?

3.6 A suggested structure for Engage and Explain

3.7 Putting it all together: An example of Engage and Explain

3.8 Practical Exercises

Module 4: Free Narrative Accounts

4.1 The Importance of Free Narrative Accounts

4.2 Building a Collaborative Relationship

4.3 Types of Questions and How to Use Them Effectively

4.3.1 Introducing types of questions

4.3.2 Using Open-Ended Questioning

4.3.3 Using Probing or WH Questions

4.3.4 Minimizing Leading, Suggestive Questions and Yes/No questions

- 4.3.5 Questions that should never be used
- 4.3.6 How much should an auditor speak in interviews
- 4.4 Enhancing Recall and Memory
- 4.5 Dealing with Inconsistencies
- 4.6 Managing Power Dynamics
  - 4.6.1 Introduction to Power imbalances
  - 4.6.2 Recommendations on Managing Power Dynamics
- 4.7 Managing Interviewee Resistance or Reluctance
- 4.8 An Effective Structure for the Account step
  - 4.8.1 A suggested structure for the A step
  - 4.8.2 Dos and Don'ts in step A of the PEACE model
- 4.9 Notes on Group interviews
- 4.10 Notes on interviewing children
- 4.11 Putting it all together
- 4.12 Practical Exercises

Module 5: Closing the Interview

- 5.1 Reviewing Key Information
- 5.2 Addressing Remaining Concerns
- 5.3 Next Steps and Follow-up
- 5.4 Wrapping up and Expressing Gratitude
- 5.4 Practical Exercises

Module 6: Evaluation and Documentation

- 6.1 Assessing the Quality and Reliability of Information
- 6.2 Corroborating Interviewee's Statements
- 6.3 Documenting the Interview Findings
- 6.4 Recognizing and Addressing Interviewer Bias
- 6.5 Considerations for Cultural Sensitivity
- 6.6 Ensuring Confidentiality and Data Protection

6.7 Interviewing Vertically vs. Horizontally and using lists in Interviews

6.8 Practical Exercises

Module 7: Ethical Considerations and Professional Conduct

7.1 Ethical Guidelines for Social Compliance Auditors

7.2 Cultural Sensitivity and Respectful Communication

7.3 Confidentiality and Informed Consent

7.4 Data Protection and Privacy

7.5 Dr. Shawn Christopher Shea's Approach to Ethical Communication

7.6 Addressing Power Imbalance and Vulnerability

7.7 Handling Ethical Dilemmas and Challenges

7.8 Professional Integrity and Continuous Improvement

7.9 Case Studies and Practical Exercises

Module 8: Practical Application and Case Studies

8.1 Scenario-Based Interviews

8.2 Case Study: Ensuring Cultural Sensitivity

8.3 Handling Difficult Interviews

8.4 Corroborating Evidence

8.5 Reflective Practice and Feedback

Module 9: How to audit a topic without mentioning the topic and terminologies

Module 10: Conclusion and Final Assessment

10.1 Reviewing the PEACE model

10.2 Lessons from Dr. Shawn Christopher Shea

10.3 Conclusion and Next Steps

10.4 Final Assessment